

MCMASTER INSTITUTE FOR MUSIC AND THE MIND PRESENTS

Integrated Concert and Lecture Understanding the Mystery of Musical Emotion

November 24, 2006

*First Unitarian Church of Hamilton
170 Dundurn St. S.
Hamilton, Ontario
8:00 p.m.*

Featuring:

*Introduction by Mamdouh Shoukri,
Vice President,
Research and International Affairs,
McMaster University*

*William Thompson, Professor,
University of Toronto*

Performers Include:

*David Jones, Pianist
Annette-Barbara Vogel, Violinist
The Radha Subramanian Ensemble,
Voice, Violin & Tabla*

GENERAL ADMISSION $10
(STUDENTS $5)

TICKETS AVAILABLE AT THE DOOR

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT
HTTP://MIMM.MCMASTER.CA

The McMaster Institute for Music and the Mind brings the arts and sciences together in its unique integrated concert and lecture series. Eminent scientist William Thompson from the University of Toronto and renowned musicians pianist David Jones, violinist Annette-Barbara Vogel, and the Radha Subramanian Ensemble present an evening of lecture, performance and demonstration on how we process emotion in music and why music moves us so profoundly.

LAUREL TRAINOR, DIRECTOR
DAVID GERRY, EVENT-COORDINATOR
MCMASTER INSTITUTE FOR MUSIC AND THE MIND

